CORAM : SWATANTER KUMAR, C.J. &
DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, J.

July 26, 2007.

P.C. :

Counsel appearing for the Board states that the Chairman of the Board would listen to all the grievances of the Petitioner and pass an order within six weeks from today. A representation with the documents to be filed within two weeks. Liberty to the Petitioner to challenge the said order in accordance with law.

2. This direction we have issued for the reason that the questions raised in the present Writ Petition are primarily of factual determination in relation to the registration of Mathadi Workers and various facts in relation to their other benefits including wages. This is a matter which can hardly be adjudicated upon in the exercise of the jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. The Writ Petition is disposed of .

CHIEF JUSTICE

Dr.D. Y. Chandrachud, J.
